Terms and Conditions

Entrants must currently be enrolled in undergraduate or graduate degree programs in Indiana.

A maximum of 1 piece per student may be submitted. All artwork must have been completed while artist was enrolled in college. 2-D and 3-D work will be accepted. 2-D work must be framed and ready to hang. Water color and drawings must be under glass or plexiglass. No 2-D work over 50" x 50" will be accepted.

Artwork must be original and not copied.

Artwork is to be documented and submitted as JPEG files. No slides or photos please. All art submitted for judging must be the actual work to be in the exhibitions. CDs will be returned only if a self-addressed stamped envelope or package with sufficient postage attached is provided. There is no entry fee. Please include: name, college/year, contact information (include mailing address, phone and e-mail); title of artwork, media, dimensions, and date executed.

Artists' Responsibilities

Artist is responsible for payment of all shipping related to delivery and return of pieces. Pieces accepted for exhibition will remain with the gallery exhibition coordinators from January through mid-August 2010. Artist is responsible for insuring their artwork for the duration of the exhibition. The Indiana Horse Council and Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College assume no responsibility for artwork that is damaged or lost, although every precaution will be taken to safeguard all art.

Artist must allow photography and photographic use of artwork for the purpose of promotion, documentation and use by the media, Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College and the Indiana Horse Council/Hoosier Horse Fair & Expo, Indiana State Museum, and Athenaeum Foundation.
